Attacks Bill to Give Counties Highway Cash

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus and Highway Director F. R. Oliver both attacked today a Senate bill to give counties an additional $1.5 million a year in highway funds.

Faubus said the measure, approved by the Senate Wednesday, would cost the state Highway Department $3 million—not $1.5 million—because the money is matched 50-50 by the federal government.

Oliver said that the Department's long-range secondary road program would be disrupted if the bill becomes law.

"The Highway Department has started reviewing its three-year, 700-mile $28 million secondary highway program with a view of indefinitely postponing about $10 million worth of such projects," Oliver told a news conference.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee recommended passage of the bill earlier today.

The bill would allot $20,000 to each county for use in matching federal aid. The Highway Department would retain this money as a drawing account for the counties and would get to keep any of it which a county did not use.

Every county drew its full $20,000, the total from state funds would be $1.5 million. The Highway Department also gets federal aid funds which are not used by counties.

Oliver said that the state gets only $4.5 million a year in federal matching funds for secondary roads and that diversion of $1.5 million of it would force curtailment of the department's program. He said a special Highway Commission meeting would be called to revise the secondary road program.

He estimated that about $1 million worth of projects would be suspended in each of the state's 10 highway districts.

Faubus said he wasn't taking a stand on the bill, which now goes to the House, but was merely pointing out what its overall effect would be.

The governor said he was also reserving judgment on a bill approved by the Senate to permit charging of a time-price differential above the cash price by agreement between seller and purchaser of automobiles, appliances, or other merchandise.

Faubus indicated the possibility of a compromise in the difference between himself and school forces in the teacher retirement system revision.

He told his news conference the way might still be open for "contacts and negotiations."

And he declined to say definitely that a bill embodied his ideas on the system would be introduced in the legislature.

A bill to set the state contribution at 9.72 per cent of salary has been introduced in both houses.

Many Believe Business to Get Worse

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Government and industry experts advised Congress today that business probably will get somewhat worse before it gets better but should turn up this year. It may not recover fully until 1962 or later, they agreed.

A panel of five economists gave that consensus to the Senate-House Economic Committee at the opening of hearings on the annual economic messages of two presidents—former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent his report last month, and President Kennedy who has sent several messages on economic problems.

Today's testimony came closer to agreeing with Kennedy's estimate of the business outlook—that there is economic decline and slack, with a prospect of partial recovery this year—than with Eisenhower's view that the country is merely on a high economic plateau and about to resume "sustainable growth."

Dr. George Cline Smith vice president and chief economist of the F. W. Dodge Corp., New York construction economists, testified that conditions are "mushy."

"A recession is clearly underway and it shows signs of getting worse before it gets better," he amplified.

"On the other hand, (there is) good reason to expect that the downturn will be reversed before it gets too much deeper."

The economist, frequently consulted by congressional committees, commended what he described as Kennedy's "go-slow attitude." Kennedy has proposed quick action on a wide range of anti-recession measures but they are relatively mild in the view of advocates of drastic measures.

"The President's idea is to hold off decision on major federal intervention until April when the business outlook may be clearer."

Louis Paradiso, Commerce Department economist, offered no general business forecast in his prepared statement but reported that most major segments of business feel that demand will be moving downward for a time.

S. L. Reed, 96, Hope Pioneer, Dies Thursday

Sidney L. Reed, aged 96, pioneer resident of Hope died early Thursday in a local hospital. He was born in 1864 at Gordons, La. and moved to Hope at an early age with his parents. He was associated with his brothers for many years in the mercantile business in Hope and engaged in farming. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Gresham Reed of Miller County, three daughters, Mrs. Calvin Hervey of Texarkana, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Hope and Mrs. Don Ligon of Dallas and one sister, Mrs. Atlas Key of Hope.

Funeral services will be at 10 a. m. Friday at the home by Dr. John McClanahan. Burial will be in Rose Hill Cemetery by Hernando-Cornelius Funeral service.

Active pallbearers are Robert LaGrone, Albert Graves, Henry Haynes, Franklin McLarty, Dale Jones, Hervey Holt, Brooks Shults of Fulton and Brooks Montgomery of Garland City.

March on City Hall Opposed

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—A planned student march on City Hall ran into college and city opposition Wednesday, but talk was renewed of a demonstration today against alleged vice in Terre Haute.

Indiana State Teachers College students said Mark I. Williams, dean of men, forbade them to march. The dean could not be reached for comment.

About 200 students gathered on the campus Wednesday afternoon as campus police argued with their leaders over the planned demonstration.

When Police Chief Frank Riddle arrived at the quadrangle, he denied that gambling and prostitution flourish in Terre Haute, as reported in a current Saturday Evening Post article.

Dr. Raleigh W. Holmstedt, ISTC president, said he did not forbid the students to march but did tell them a demonstration would serve no purpose and would reflect on the college.

Mayor Ralph Tucker, who has set up a committee to decide how to answer the magazine article, said police were instructed to stop in only if a demonstration obstructed traffic or became disorderly.

Trade Stamp Bill Finds Opposition

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two legislators opposed a bill to permit the state to profit on unredeemed trading stamps at a committee hearing today. Later, the Senate Revenue and Taxation committee sent the bill back to the Senate without recommendation.

Sen. Oliver Williams of Sheridan and Rep. Bill Wells of Bradley County said the bill would force a small trading stamp company at Warren out of business.

Carl Martin of Mabelvale, near Little Rock, who said he was the only one at the committee interested only as a private citizen, told the committee he thought people would like to see prices reduced rather than having "to buy something you don't really need or want everytime you go to the store."

Eugene Warren, Little Rock attorney representing a stamp company, said the stamps didn't cause price increases. He said competition took care of the price factor and described the stamps as an advertising medium.

Sen. Merle Peterson of Dumas, the bill's sponsor, said groceries were cheaper in his hometown without stamps than in Little Rock with stamps.

Peterson's bill would enable the state to collect the money equivalent of any stamps not redeemed within two years.

Sen. Roy Bates of Mena, said his Senate Insurance Committee would report favorably on a bill to require surety bond increases from insurance companies doing business in Arkansas.

Bates said the bill, introduced by Sen. Marshall Shackelford of El Dorado would be sponsored as a measure of the entire committee.

Party Line Measure Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Another bill to prevent crossing of party lines in primary elections was introduced in the Arkansas House today by Franklin County Rep. Lowell Whittington.

The bill is a virtual duplicate of an earlier Whittington bill which was defeated 53-33.

Whittington, who is president of the Arkansas Young Democrats, said he felt House members did not understand the earlier bill or they would have voted for it.

"I am going to lay some groundwork on this new bill and I'm sure it can be passed," Whittington said. "Some of the party leaders are going to help me work up support for it."

The bill would require that a voter's party affiliation be noted on his poll tax receipt. The designation of affiliation could be on his poll tax receipt. The designation of affiliation could be changed by payment of a 50 cent fee up to 60 days before a primary. The bill provides fines of from $10 to $100 for voting or attempting to vote in any primary held by a party other than that with which the elector is affiliated.

Sees North Big Racial Problem

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—A civil rights leader said today the way Negroes are treated in northern cities may turn out to be a more important problem than their treatment in the South.

The Rev. Trafford P. Maher, S.J., of St. Louis made the statement in a speech prepared for a statewide Human Rights Conference. He is chairman of the State Human Rights Commission and head of the Department of Education at St. Louis University.

"Exclusion of Negroes from country clubs, private hospitals, housing developments and superior positions in industry is so clear in all northern metropolitan areas," he said, "that one wonders whether the humiliations endured by Negroes who have migrated to the North are not in fact more severe and degrading than the ordinary Negroes experience in the South."

Emmet Chair Is Gift to Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Don't let that rocking chair fool you, Gov. Orval E. Faubus is not planning an early retirement.

The chair was a gift from Emmet, Ark., students who toured the state Capitol Wednesday.

Faubus said his acceptance of the gift, a replica of an antique Ozark rocking chair, should not be taken to mean he plans an early retirement.

House Ignores Tax Increase Contention

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House today ignored a contention that it had voted for a tax increase and refused to recall from the Senate a bill to remove certain exemptions from the state use tax law.

Sebastian County Rep. Mill Earnhart made the recall motion after charging that if the bill becomes law industries in the state will have to pay an additional $500,000 a year in taxes.

"I think we made a mistake on this bill," Earnhart said. "This has been an economy-minded and anti-tax House and this has tickled me. But on this bill you will have to tell your people that you voted for a tax increase."

The motion to recall was defeated 61-15.

The House passed the bill 93-0 Wednesday, after its author, Perry County Rep. Haul Van Dalsem said the legislature should pass all bills relating to the use tax and let the governor and other state department heads decide which should become law. The Senate has passed bills to put into the sales tax law the exemptions now included in the use tax measure.

The use tax is a levy on merchandise bought outside the state. The legislature has been concerned with equalizing exemptions in the two laws. The state Chamber of Commerce is backing the effort to add exemptions in the sales tax law.

Earnhart said he had little doubt which bill would become law if the matter is left up to Faubus. "I think we can count on it being House bill 221 (Van Dalsem's bill)," Earnhart said.

The Sebastian County representative noted that several large industries, including the giant Borg-Warner plant at Fort Smith had been influenced in their decision to move to Arkansas by the favorable use tax structure.

"I think it would be better to leave things as they are," Earnhart said, "but we certainly don't want to pass a tax increase."

Van Dalsem said the bill did no more than protect Arkansas businesses from competition with surrounding states because they are required to collect a 3 per cent tax on materials or equipment while the out-of-state merchants collect no tax.

"This bill just plugs loopholes that have needed taking care of a long time," Van Dalsem said. He noted that the legislative council had recommended that inequities in the sales and use tax laws be reconciled by a bill such as his.

Earnhart said he had no personal dispute with Van Dalsem. "Mr. Van Dalsem is closely allied with the administration and he should take care of the administration," Earnhart said. "But this is a bill that the House should consider at length rather than give it quick and unanimous passage such as we did yesterday."

JFK's Health Plan to Be Financed by Social Security Hike

1st Graders Are Studying Geometry

COFFEYVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The 23 first grade pupils in Coffeyville elementary school are studying geometry—even though they can't read nor do arithmetic. The 6-year-olds are being taught geometry so they'll have a foundation for arithmetic, which they'll never study at all. It seems they will acquire the "three R's" as they are exposed to lines and angles.

Principal James L. Kornegay Jr. shocked the PTA when he announced last year that first graders would study geometry.

The youngsters are now in the second week of courses designed to last about two years. Even though some of them can't pronounce "geometry" correctly, they know a right triangle, an acute angle and an obtuse angle when they see one.

Kornegay says he first heard of the experiments being conducted at Stanford University in California.

"The one thing I remember about reading of those experiments was that the kids learned comprehension," he said. "I know in our schools the trouble with most kids, even through college, is that they can't read."

Kornegay ordered the necessary books and went to work.

Ad Campaign Head Denies C. of C. Claim

Byron Bradley of the Southwest Advertising Co., Longview, Texas, denied today that he or any of his women workers had claimed or implied endorsement by the Retail Merchants Committee or Hope Chamber of Commerce for the "Metrechants Big Bonus Coupon Book" campaign which is now being circulated among local business firms.

Mr. Bradley said the Big Bonus booklet deal has been subscribed to by 21 local firms on its own merits, without claimed endorsement of any kind. He said no one in his organization had ever implied C of C endorsement, and added that the campaign had been outlined in advance to the chamber and the retail merchants committee.

The Big Bonus campaign has been run, according to Mr. Bradley, in Camden, El Dorado, Crossett, Warren and other towns.

Scout Court of Honor Here Friday

Boy Scouts of the Piney Wood District will hold a District Court of Honor Friday, Feb. 10 in the City Hall Auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

Haskell Jones will be Master of Ceremonies. Presentation of Awards will be made by Dr. P. C. Crow, Clifford Franks, Royce Weisenberger and Jim James all of Hope. Also presenting awards will be Walter Balch of Nashville, Scout Johnny Schooley, Troop 91, Hope, in charge of physical arrangements.

This Court of Honor will be the largest presented in the District in a number of years. The court of honor celebrates Scoutings' 51 birthday.

All Scouts and parents in the district are invited. The program will last approximately one hour.

Favors Passage of Highway Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The House Revenue and Taxation Committee today unanimously recommended passage of a Senate bill which would give counties an additional $1.5 million from state highway revenues.

The measure passed the Senate 25-6 Wednesday.

Under the bill, each county would get $200,000 to use in matching federal funds for improving secondary roads and bridges.

James H. Pilkinton

Chancellor of the Sixth Chancery Circuit, second division, James H. Pilkinton today resigned as judge, effective March 1, to return to private law practice.

The 47 year old judge is serving his 11th year on bench.

A native of Hempstead, Mr. Pilkinton has served as prosecuting attorney for the 8th Judicial District from 1917-1951, was state senator prior to World War II, in which he served in the Navy.

The 6th Circuit is composed of Clark, Nevada, Pike, Hempstead, Miller, Polk, Little River, Howard and Sevier. Judge Wesley Howard of Texarkana is the other district chancellor.

"I have enjoyed serving in public office, and particularly as Chancellor," Pilkinton said, "but I have two children to educate and I can simply make more money in private practice than the office of chancellor pays. I feel I owe it to my family to make the change."

Judge Pilkinton is married to the former Marguerite Crumpler of Smackover. They have two children, Tom Louise, 16, and a son, Jim, 12.

He will establish an office here. Gov. Faubus will appoint a successor for the unexpired term which ends December 31, 1962.

Jury Awards $150,000 for Road Land

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—A Saline County Circuit Court jury today awarded $150,000 to Marshall Stanley in a condemnation suit for land he had claimed was worth $20 million.

The jury, which got the case Wednesday night, deliberated about two hours this morning before returning its verdict.

Court officials said this is the highest award ever made in a Saline County land case.

The Highway Department offered Stanley $3,500 for the land.

Two expert witnesses testified for the state Wednesday. Robert B. McElwaine, a mining geologist of Little Rock, testified that deposits on Stanley's land would not make it more valuable than any other land in the area.

Bruce Williams, former owner of a laboratory at Joplin, Mo., testified there was practically no difference in seven soil samples taken from the 18 acres and neighboring property for chemical analysis.

Stanley claimed mineral deposits on the land made it unusually valuable.

Cucumber Meet Here Saturday

Are you interested in growing cucumbers, under contract? A meeting will be held in the City Hall auditorium on Saturday, Feb. 11 at 10 a. m. according to Calvin Caldwell, County Agent.

Farmers will have an opportunity to discuss the contracts with officials of Brown-Miller Co. at the meeting. They have advised that 200 additional acres are needed above that of last year, he said.

"Our recommendations on cucumber production as well as some research information will be presented to the group," Mr. Caldwell said.

Says Program Would Benefit 14.2 Million

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today urged Congress to approve a controversial health insurance program for 14.2 million Americans 65 or older. It would be financed by an increase in Social Security taxes.

In a special message to Congress dealing with the "harsh consequences" and sometimes crushing cost of ill health, Kennedy also recommended more federal spending to provide separately for:

An increase in community health services and facilities such as nursing homes, nursing aid and expansion of hospital research and development; training of more doctors and dentists (through federal) scholarships; a broader health care program for children and youth; more vocational rehabilitation training of the disabled; and expansion of medical research.

"The health of our nation," the President said, "is a key to its future—to its economic vitality, to the morale and efficiency of its citizens, to our success in achieving our own goals and demonstrating to others the benefits of a free society."

Turning it a matter of national concern, Kennedy said: "The dramatic results of new medicines and new methods — opening the way to a fuller and more useful life—are too often beyond the reach of those who need them most."

"Those among us who are over 65—16 million today in the United States—go to the hospital more often and stay longer than their younger neighbors," he added. "Their physical activity is limited by six times as much disability as the rest of the population. Their annual medical bill is twice that of persons under 65—but their annual income is only half as high."

The health insurance program Kennedy proposed for the aged—similar in principle to the one he tried unsuccessfully to put through Congress last year as a member of the Senate—would apply to 13.7 million over 65 who are under the Social Security program, and to about 500,000 under the Railroad Retirement pension program, administration officials said.

They said further the proposed increase in Social Security taxes, including bigger levies under the railroad program, would pay out about $1.1 billion in health insurance benefits in 1963, the first full year of operation.

As for the other health measures Kennedy recommended, the officials stressed that no firm cost estimates are yet available. But they calculate at this time that these programs will require about $56 million in new appropriations for the fiscal year starting July 1, and that about $21 million of this actually would be spent in those 12 months.

For the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1962, appropriations are figured at about $177 million and actual spending at about $55 million.

Some of the programs Kennedy advocated are on a pay-as-you-go basis, and the administration estimates the cost would continue to mount through the first four years, and then perhaps level off.

Snowfall Hits a Record in the South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern states along the Mason-Dixon line have been hit by a record snowfall that paralyzed traffic and kept hundreds of schools closed.

Heaviest blows were struck Wednesday at northern Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia. Two deaths were attributed to the storm, both resulting from highway accidents in Virginia.

Rising temperatures and clearing skies are in prospect today. They are expected to pierce winter's icy curtain across the South, but highway crews faced the enormous task of freeing all the choked roads.

Hope of opening any but the primary routes was abandoned. Wednesday night only emergency traffic was allowed on main routes in northern Virginia. Trucks and cars were stranded throughout the mountainous belt of the state.

Depths up to 18 inches fell across a stretch up the Shenandoah Valley and into northern Virginia, adding a fresh layer to last week's storm. Combined depths in some places measured 29 inches, and winds pushed drifts of four and five feet across roads.

Western Maryland had its heaviest snowfall of the season, Cumberland, a city of 45,000 has had 60 inches of snow since Dec. 11.

The official weather observer there, Robert R. Golden, said it was "the worst winter I remember."

A state of emergency was declared at Hagerstown, Md., where 15 inches fell and the roofs on two industrial storage buildings collapsed.

West Virginia National Guardsmen were called out to help dig the Preston County town of Terra Alta out of the snow. Another 12 inches of snow brought the accumulation to two feet along the West Virginia-Maryland-Pennsylvania border.

North Carolina escaped the brunt of the storm except across the Northern Piedmont.

Depths in North Carolina ranged from 1 1/2 inch to 2 1/2 inches in the Black Mountain-Ridgecrest area to 6 inches in the West Jefferson area.

School Recall Law Is Signed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bill repealing an Arkansas school board recall provision was one of several measures signed into law by Gov. Orval E. Faubus Wednesday.

The 1938 recall law was hinged to the segregation-integration dispute and was designed to provide for the ouster of racial moderates or integrationists.

While the law was used a number of times the integration issue was involved only twice, and both times failed to result in the recall of any board members.

Other measures signed by the governor included bills to:

Ruling on Statement Likely Today

BALTIMORE (AP)—Can a revolver and handwritten statement, obtained in an FBI search made without a warrant, be introduced as evidence in the Melvin Davis ees Jr. kidnap-murder trial?

The answer to that important question may come today at the U. S. District Court trial of the Hyattsville, Md., dance band musician. He is being tried on charges of taking Mrs. Mildred Jackson, 27, and her daughter, Susan, 5, across a state line two years ago for the purpose of killing them.

Rees also is accused of murder by Virginia in the deaths of Mrs. Jackson's husband, Carroll, and another daughter, Janet, 1 1/2. All four members of the family disappeared Jan. 11, 1950, from near their Apple Grove, Va., home.

Their bodies were found in March of that year.

Rees has pleaded innocent to the federal charges. The jury was excused at lunch time Wednesday. Judge Roszel C. Thomsen told the jurors "the court can't go ahead with the case any further" until disposing of a defense motion made Tuesday about admissibility of evidence.

Government and defense lawyers spent most of Wednesday arguing about the search of the Hyattsville home of Rees' parents last June 24. The defense contends what was found cannot be admitted as evidence.

The FBI in Baltimore declined comment. Authoritative sources said, however, that agents received permission from Rees' parents.

Asst. U. S. Atty. H. Russell Smouse said the search turned up a pistol and a handwritten account of the Jackson slayings.

Groups Will Curb Back Door Deals

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairmen of two powerful House committees have teamed up in a drive to curb federal back-door spending estimated to run into billions of dollars annually.

Back-door spending is the congressional term applied to Treasury withdrawals under authority of laws which do not make direct appropriations. Instead, they permit expenditures through contract authorizations, public debt transactions and other means. It is used largely in connection with housing, highway and subsidy programs.

In the second session of the 86th Congress last year, back-door spending obligated $4,164,000,000 of federal funds for which no direct appropriations were made.

Heading the movement to curb the practice are Reps. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., chairman of the Rules Committee, and Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., chairman of the Appropriations Committee. Each has introduced a resolution designed to cope with the practice, and more than 100 House members have signed a request for action.

Smith's plan would permit objection of a single congressman to block House consideration of any bill carrying appropriations or authorizing future money withdrawals from the Treasury unless the bill originated in the Appropriations Committee.

Cannon's proposal would automatically send to the Ways and Means Committee any measure providing authority for new programs, or increasing the scope of existing programs, which involve a charge against the Treasury.

The Ways and Means Committee would be required to report to the House within 30 days an estimate of the cost involved. The legislation then could be passed only by a majority of the House—219—on a roll-call vote.

Voting Booth Measure Fails

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An attempt to force the Pulaski County Election Commission to furnish voting booths for every 100 voters and post voter lists outside each precinct failed Wednesday when Pulaski Chancellor, Murray O. Reed dismissed the suit.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Felix Arnold and Mrs. Cecil C. Bridges, officials of the Little Rock League of Women Voters. Defendants were three members of the Election Commission.

Sections of an 1891 election law require booths and voter lists.

Reed said he felt the commission complied with the law to the best of its ability and said the problem of changing the law was primarily a legislative one.

25 Cities Are Added to Critical List

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department today added 25 major industrial centers to its list of substantial unemployment areas. A spokesman called the list the worst since early World War II.

The new areas reported with an idle rate of 6 per cent or more of their work force included Philadelphia, Cleveland, Baltimore, Los Angeles, Newark, St. Louis and Kansas City.

At the same time, it was announced that Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg will make a five-state inspection of unemployment areas beginning Friday. He is making, at President Kennedy's direction, a series of on-the-spot tours of areas where unemployment is considered a major problem.

Goldberg will visit Chicago, Gary and South Bend, Ind.; and Lansing, Mich., Friday; Detroit and Columbus, Ohio, Saturday and Pittsburgh Sunday.

The new Labor Department survey of major labor centers showed that the aggregate rise in unemployment in the 150 major areas surveyed increased about 50 per cent between November and January.

More than half of the 150 major areas are now classified as having substantial unemployment—that is, more than 6 per cent of their workers idle. Some of the areas reported an unemployment rate exceeding 12 per cent.

Scouts Celebrate at State House

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Scouts of the Quapaw Area Council celebrated Eagle Scout Day with a ceremony in the Arkansas House this morning.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus accepted a plaque from the scouts and proclaimed the week of Feb. 7-13 as Scout Week in Arkansas.

About 90 scouts, all of whom won their Eagle badges during 1960, and 50th anniversary of scouting, lined the perimeter of the House chamber holding American flags. The House joined the scouts in pledging allegiance to the flag and in repeating the scout oath.

Faubus, in accepting the plaque, said, "I know there is great and good hope for our state and nation because of you fine young men and the training you get in scouting."

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Trials of six Negro students arrested in a lunch counter demonstration Nov. 30 today were continued until 27 to permit a ruling on the constitutionality of the law under which they were charged.

The Philander Smith (Negro) College students were charged under a law making it a misdemeanor for a person to threaten a breach of the peace in a public place.

The state Supreme Court has under submission a case arising from earlier demonstrations which challenges the constitutionality of the law. This appeal stems from sit-in demonstrations at downtown lunch counters last March.

Municipal Judge Quinn Glover, in continuing the case today, warned the defendants again about engaging in other demonstrations under a threat of being cited for contempt of court.

Bombs Intercepted

BONN, Germany (AP)—Security officers have intercepted two parcels containing explosives mailed to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss.

An interior ministry spokesman said the identical parcels contained a small black powder charge, another substance that has not yet been analyzed and a fuse rigged to explode when the packages were opened.

The first package—for Adenauer—arrived at the chancellery Saturday. It looked suspicious to the security people and explosives experts opened it.

The bomb for Strauss was intercepted Monday at the Defense Ministry.

Kennedy Names Two Ambassadors

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has named George F. Kennan as ambassador to Yugoslavia and Livingston T. Merchant as ambassador to Canada.

Both are veteran diplomats, although the outspoken Kennan has been out of the foreign service since 1953. Kennan was ambassador to Moscow in 1952, but his sharp tongue soon caused the Soviets to declare him persona non grata.

A Cold Escape

HONG KONG (AP)—Hiding in the frozen meat compartment of a train, nine youths escaped from Communist China to this British colony so chilled they could not talk. They suffered no serious effects from their journey.

calling out of town?

Here's the fastest and easiest way

FIRST, give the operator the name of the city you are calling and the Area Code for that city.
NEXT, tell her the telephone number you're calling.
LAST, when the operator asks, give her the number you're calling from.

It's easy and fast. For example, just say, "Dallas, Area Code 214, R1 2-1432," and then when the operator asks your number, say, "KL 5-2368." You'll not only save time yourself, but help speed along your call as well.

Commutors Riot in Naples, Italy

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — Steel-

helmeted police patrolled downtown Naples today after a night of rioting by 4,000 commuters left stranded by a snap transport strike called at the height of the homebound rush.

Streetscars and buses to and from the suburbs reappeared on the debris-littered streets this morning. The transit company re-installed 17 employees whose suspension had caused the strike, and the other workers went back to their jobs.

There were no new disorders. Repair crews started hauling away burned-out wrecks of streetcars and buses fired by angry commuters in a burning, window-smashing rampage Wednesday night through the heart of this teeming industrial center of a million people—Italy's third largest city.

The transit workers had called a two-hour work stoppage Wednesday afternoon as a demonstration for higher wages but it was supposed to end at 5:30 p. m. When the company suspended 17 workers for insubordination, the others walked off the job at the height of the rush hour, leaving thousands from the suburbs with no transport home.

Caught off guard, the company tried to set up an emergency service with hired buses. The tired, restless commuters fought afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Horton.

Mrs. Hugh Brown has returned to her home in Dallas after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thrash.

The Vance Smileys, Hot Springs were here Sunday to hear their son Wayne in an organ recital at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Bernie Hargis has gone to Fort Knox, Ky. to see Maj. Hargis who is in officers school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn left Saturday for Temple, Tex. where she is now a patient at the Scott-White Clinic.

Mrs. Jim F. McClanahan of North Little Rock is here with her son, Dr. John McClanahan and family for a few days.

Teddy Jones Jr. and Richard McKelvey, both students at Hendrix College spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Jones and Mrs. Darr Godbold.

Guidance Counselor Earl Downs and Supt. of Schools James Jones went to Fayetteville Monday and Tuesday to a meeting of guidance counselors.

Wife Seeks Release From May-December Union

Dear Helen:

When I was a baby my father died and when I was 10 my mother ran away. I had no one. A lady took me in, letting me baby-sit and do her housework in return for board and keep and money for school books. I was so thankful.

At 14 I moved to a separate room in the same apartment building. That's when I met this man who lived upstairs and was 44 years old. He supported me and I went on to school, cooking for him and keeping his apartment. We lived together until I was 25, then married. Now, we have our own business, a home, I have a car and everything I need. I am 32 and he is 62. He loves me more than I love him. I stayed with him for security but feel I missed a lot in life. It would kill him if he knew this. There are no children. Could I, in all conscience, leave him? —Longing for Fun

Dear Longing for Fun: Whether you love your husband or not, your duty lies with him. He befriended you, unconventional though his approach may have been. To walk out on him now would be the height of ingratitude. You took certain vows when you embarked upon this May and December marriage. Stick to them. Life is never easy. But your life will be lived in vain if you sell your character short.

Dear Helen:

I am 18, a college girl and go with a foreign boy. He doesn't want a better education. We fight all the time yet when he doesn't show up I feel lost. My folks are against this romance and I know if we marry it will be as they say. After the newness wears off I'll be comparing his folks' nationality, jabbering and different customs with the way I've been brought up and be wishing to God I'd never let him become a habit. for that is what he is. China Beset by Twin Disasters

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONG KONG (AP) — Refugees arriving from Communist China say the twin specters of disease and sabotage stalk the land.

Hunger, malnutrition and famine in some areas have undermined the people's health and morale, they say, and passive but crippling sabotage is setting in.

Responsible Western experts here still see no sign of a mass uprising or revolution in the making. They say the Chinese Communists have taken drastic measures to stave off disaster.

Apparently trying to give their undertaken, overworked people a breather, the Peiping regime has abandoned in all but name the "great leap forward" campaign on which it had pinned its hopes of overtaking the West in industrial and agricultural production.

Peiping also has started paying out large sums of precious foreign exchange—estimated at up to $200 million worth—to Australia and Canada for food for its hungry millions.

Refugees, streaming out of China in increasing numbers, paint a harrowing picture. The picture probably is colored by emotion, but the stories they tell are being repeated too often these days to be disregarded.

The people of China are desperate, they say. Food has always been short under communism but never this short. And rumors are being cut lower and lower.

Some state granaries have been reported raided, others set afire.

Moderate Is the Weather in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Moderate temperatures warmed Arkansas today, speeding melting of the snowy remains of the winter's worst snowstorm in north-west Arkansas.

Highways slicked by ice and snow Tuesday and Wednesday, were clear except for a few isolated patches of ice, State Police said.

Most schools reopened after a two-day lapse caused by the snow, which ranged up to a foot in depth in some parts of northwest Arkansas. A few rural schools remained closed.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Little Rock forecast a high today of near 40 in the northwest and north and 45 to 55 elsewhere. Overnight lows ranged from 17 at Harrison to 40 at Texarkana, but generally were in the high 20s and 30s.

A good covering of snow remained on the ground in much of the northwest corner of the state, but streets and roads generally were clear and today's mild temperatures were expected to melt off much of the snow on the ground.

Four rural schools in Boone County, one in Madison County and one in Washington County called off classes again today, but others operated. Bus and air service, disrupted by the snow, was back to normal.

Horace Greeley was born in the New Hampshire village of Amherst, which is located on Beaver Brook. The Indians called it Quohquinnassakessanahog.

Jones Sentenced to Life in Prison

BOSTON, Tex. (AP) - An ex-convict who spent more than half his life in Arkansas and Texas prisons was formally sentenced to life in prison Wednesday for the slaying of another ex-convict and now faces trial for armed robbery and assault with intent to kill.

Curtis Lee Jones, 38, was convicted last Friday in the slaying of 43-year-old Doyle Jackson at Texarkana, Tex.

Jones was captured Nov. 1 near Laredo after a wild flight across the state during which he is accused of raping a cousin, attempting to strangle her male companion and kidnapping four persons.

Accused Spies Are Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) - The FBI said today Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Kroger, on trial in London on spy charges, are in fact Morris Cohen and his wife, Lola, American citizens and formerly residents of New York City.

The FBI said it had supplied British authorities with the Cohens' fingerprints and they matched up with those of the Krogers.

The Krogers and three other persons are now being tried on charges that they had conspired to steal naval secrets for the Soviet Union.

the state's share to five per cent, which he says will be sufficient to take care of all needs for the foreseeable future.

On another matter, Faubus said he thought proposed elections reforms such as voting booths and machines were desirable. But he said he didn't think they were essential as some persons believe and he said he opposed using any state money to effect them now.

If any county wants to pay for the machines or booths, that would be fine, Faubus said.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Both houses of the Arkansas Legislature Wednesday took action on bills providing extra funds for the state's 75 counties, and indications are that final passage will be easy and soon.

The Senate passed a bill to give the counties an additional $1.5 million in road funds and the House approved a measure to give the counties $530,000 from general revenues. The bills now swap houses and are expected to run into no more than the token opposition they met initially.

The measure which passed the Senate would give each county $20,000 from a $2 million fund released with the retirement of the McMath highway bonds of 1941-51.

Counties would use the money to match federal aid for developing secondary roads and bridges.

Under the House - passed measure, county turnback from general revenues would be boosted to $3.2 million, with no county to receive less than it got last year. The allocation formula would be changed to distribute 75 per cent of the funds among the counties equally, with 25 per cent to be based on population. The present formula is 60 per cent equally and 40 per cent on population.

A bill passed by the Senate would permit a higher base price for items purchased under installment plans than for cash purchases.

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison, who introduced the measure, was supported by Sen. Merle Peterson of Dumas. Both are automobile dealers. Proponents argued that the bill was necessary to enable dealers to make a fair profit on installment sales.

Senate passage also came for a bill to make a third drunken driving offense within a three-year period a felony punishable by up to three years imprisonment.

Senate introductions Wednesday included measures to:

Set automobile license fees at $15 and $22 annually. Licenses for the cars weighing less than 4,100 pounds would be $15 and those for heavier cars $22. (present license fees are based on a sliding scale.)

Give the state two-thirds of the odd cents collected in wagering at the Hot Springs horse race track. The other third would go to the city of Hot Springs. (At present the money is split evenly by the state, city and the track.)

Provide four - year terms for mayors and city clerks in first class cities which have a mayor-

Fastest Sub Joins Fleet

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) - With traditional pomp and ceremony, the fastest submarine in the world became a unit of the U.S. fleet today.

While the Atlantic Fleet band provided background music, commissioning rites for the atomic attack submarine Shark were conducted at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. yards.

The Shark is the 15th atomic-powered submarine placed in service and the third of the high-speed Skipjack class.

council form of government. Permit increased salaries for assistants for some county judges. Regulate credit unions. Establish a 13 per cent mark-up on wholesale wine sales to retailers.

The House got into a dispute over the wording of a bill which would finance a $52 million institutional construction bond program with funds from current revenues.

An amendment striking a clause committing future legislatures to levy new taxes should revenues be insufficient to pay off the bonds set off the dispute.

Garland Rep. Ray S. Smith, who authored the bill, withdrew it, pending a settlement of the argument.

Funds from the bond issue would be divided among the University of Arkansas, seven state colleges, the State Hospital and the Arkansas Children's Colony.

The Smith proposal is a substitute for a similar bond issue proposal which would have been financed by a one-cent levy on soft drinks. That bill was permanently withdrawn earlier this week.

A bill to remove from the state use tax law all exemptions now contained in the sales tax law was approved by the lower chamber.

Two bills to equalize exemptions in the two taxes have passed the Senate.

Certain materials and equipment purchased outside the state are subject to the use tax.

House passage also came for a bill to make automobiles purchased in Texarkana by non-residents subject to the state's 3 per cent sales tax. The present tax on cars purchased in Texarkana is 1 1/2 per cent - whether on the Arkansas or Texas side of the city.

A number of appropriations bills were passed by the House. Among them were a $5,123,000 budget for the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock, $2,001,925 for the State Sanatorium at Booneville and $6,435,000 for the State Hospital.

Among bills introduced in the lower chamber was a proposal that a referendum be held every four years in counties having dog racing tracks - to determine if the residents want to keep the tracks.

An amendment to the 1957 racing law requires that a majority of all qualified voters, not merely a majority of those voting, must approve race tracks before franchises can be issued.

BE NEAT, BE CLEAN—The machines are moving in on the litterbug. With many states passing litter laws, the rubbish disposer has joined the radio, record-player and what have you on the dashboard. Place facial tissues or sandwich crumbs in the drawer of this device on the '61 Mercury and vacuum sucks them into the glass jar.

Plane Making Some Progress

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) - A Douglas DC-8 - which normally skims along at 565 miles an hour - was cheered as it moved feet in 20 minutes Wednesday.

It was the plane's best progress in more than two days - for hours and 20 minutes it had been stuck in the mud at the end of runway at Love Field.

The big plane, carrying 102 passengers and a crew of seven, skidded on the ice-coated runway after making a normal landing Monday night. No one was injured as the plane whirled off the right way and settled in 4 feet of mud.

Air-filled rubber bags raised a 80-ton plane to the level of runway. The plane was then pulled back to the runway on roadbed of railroad ties topped with half-inch steel plates.

New Construction

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP) - British and Southern Rhodesia political leaders today made preparations to draft a constitution for this colony if it will give Africans a strong voice in Parliament.

The Southern Rhodesia Constitutional Conference wound Tuesday after agreeing on changes to double the voting strength of Africans and grant local control of native affairs, previously controlled by the British government.

The British and Southern Rhodesia governments now will work out details of a draft constitution.

Tar Heels Drop Game, DePaul Posts Victory

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer—Sixth-ranked North Carolina, and tournament-bound Louisville and DePaul went traveling—and tumbling—Wednesday night. The Tar Heels, losing their second in a row, were beaten 89-82 by a South Carolina team that had lost all eight of its previous Atlantic Coast Conference games. Tenth-ranked Louisville (17-4), attempting to celebrate its at-large berth in the NCAA tournament, was cuffed 80-74 by Eastern Kentucky. DePaul (12-5) went down by a whopping 87-64 to Marquette's Warriors only 24 hours after accepting a place in the National Invitation Tournament.

The three shockers featured a jam-packed Wednesday night college program that also saw fourth-ranked Bradley snap a three-game losing streak, 111-84 over Tampa and NIT-bound Providence (16-2) make Boston U. its ninth straight victim, 67-59.

South Carolina (7-11) fashioned its North Carolina upset with 62 per cent shooting that overbalanced a combined 65-point job by the Tar Heels' one-two punch of York Larese (36) and Doug Mac (29). Ronnie Johnson's 21 points, and late shooting by Art Whisman and Bobby Robinson triggered South Carolina from a 10-point deficit midway in the second half.

Western Kentucky (15-4), leading the chase for the Ohio Valley Conference berth in the NCAA tournament, whipped non-conference foe Xavier of Ohio, 69-61, and Ohio U. fattened its Mid-American conference lead, whipping Miami (Ohio) 91-75 while second place Toledo lost to Bowling Green 67-63.

Jack Foley scored 43 points as Holy Cross (12-4) bolstered its chances for an NIT berth, 106-95 over Dartmouth. Niagara's NIT hopes went up in a 74-52 rout of Syracuse. Stu Sheridan's 22 points led Army (14-5) over Rider, 67-55 and Navy edged William & Mary 69-67.

Villanova scored a 108-77 rout of Canisius in a Palestra windup that opened with LaSalle's 67-62 squeaker over Gettysburg, and Tulsa handed Oklahoma City its third straight loss, 78-73. Bowdoin snapped Maine's 10-game win streak, 69-62 and VPI beat VMI 86-85.

To top off the hectic evening, Lehigh beat Lafayette for the first time since Jan. 29, 1944. Since that time Lafayette had beaten its arch rival 38 straight times. This time it was Lehigh 60, Lafayette 58 with Jack Palfi scoring 19 points for the winners.

Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours there after. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

OAKLAWN NAMESAKE SHOWS OFF

HOT SPRINGS—"Mr. Oaklawn," two-year-old colt owned by Walter Schrader, Oaklawn Park's superintendent, shows good running form as he makes a round on the track where he was born. The young thoroughbred was born here and named for Oaklawn then later taken under the wing of trainer Doug Davis Jr. for development. What is hoped will be a winner in the year to come. The 1961 Spring Race Meet is February 18-April 8.

DELTA AREA

TRACY FISH COLLECTING FACILITY

MASTER FISH CATCHER—Twelve million fish a year should satisfy any angler but for the operators of the Delta Mendota Canal in California's Central Valley it's all catching and no eating. Fish kept fouling the irrigation canal's pumps and the Tracy Fish Collecting Facility was built to keep them out. The canal's waters normally flow north toward the San Francisco Bay area and fish instinctively swim seaward, too. Periodically though, the Tracy pumps at the head of the canal are reversed and water flows south, towards Fresno, confusing the fish who think they're bound downstream with the current. The fish are drawn into huge holding tanks, transferred to tank trucks, carted downstream and dumped at Antioch, near the sea. The U.S. Bureau of Reclamation figures its fish-cleaning savings in hundreds of thousands of dollars.

matter of FACT

The jack rabbit might have been named for a jumping jack. He leaps 15 to 20 feet. But the poor fellow has only his ears to blame for his name. He's been laughed at for years because he has the ears of a jackass. Earlier, he was called the jackass or mule rabbit.

$30,000 in Prize Money at Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The scramble for $30,000 prize money in the Phoenix Open got under way today without a clear-cut favorite, but deliberate Ken Venturi and the veteran little Jerry Barber seemed to have the best solution to the flat desert course.

Venturi, who won this tournament three years ago, led a field including most of the game's stars in Wednesday's pro-amateur preliminary with a five-under-par 65. It took an eagle 3 on the 10th hole, accomplished with a 40-yard pitch, to give him a one-stroke edge over Barber.

No one was discounting Arnold Palmer, although he was badly off his game in going four over the Arizona Country Club's par 70 in the pro-am.

The tourney course was toughened for this meet by the addition of 60 yards for a total of 6,661 and a new lake, but the changes weren't bothering many in the field. Ten pros bettered par in Wednesday's tuneup and seven others, including defending champion Jack Fleck, equaled it.

About the only big name missing from the tourney is Billy Maxwell, winner of last week's Palm Springs jackpot. He passed up Phoenix to play in the Caribbean. All the other 1961 winners are in the field—Palmer, who won at San Diego; San Francisco champ Gary Player; Los Angeles winner Bob Goalby and Bob Rosburg, who grabbed first money in the Bing Crosby meet.

Gym Burns at Arkadelphia

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Fire destroyed an old wooden gymnasium being used as a storage building by Friendship High School near here Wednesday night.

Arkadelphia firemen sent to the fire were hampered by lack of a water supply near the school, 10 miles north of here.

Cause of the fire was not determined and damage had not been estimated.

The fire leveled the wooden structure and also destroyed a

Branch Signs With Denver

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — George Branch, an Ashdown High School assistant coach and former all-Arkansas Interscholastic Conference tackle, has signed with the Denver Broncos of the American Football League.

Branch won all-conference honors at Arkansas A&M, from which he was graduated in 1959. He is now in his second year at Ashdown.

Tackle From Illinois Joins Porks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A 6-3, 225-pound tackle who played on the University of Illinois freshman squad last fall, has enrolled at the University of Arkansas. Two top high school stars have signed grants-in-aid.

Bob Stuart arrived here from Illinois unknown to the athletic department, a U of A spokesman said. Stuart came on his own without having prior contact with any Arkansas athletic representative, the spokesman said.

He will have three years of eligibility starting in 1962. Two Memphis high school stars signed grants-in-aid agreements with Arkansas. They are fullback Harry Sayle of Catholic High and wingback Jerry O'Dell of Messick.

Baseballer Arrested in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Frankie Robinson, 25, Cincinnati Reds' baseball star, was arrested early today in a restaurant on suspicion of carrying a concealed weapon. The arrest followed an argument involving Robinson and two friends and two other men, according to arresting officer Howard Simpson. Robinson who made bail several hours later, is scheduled to appear in court Friday.

Robinson, a Negro, won the National League slugging title in 1960. Simpson said he was called to the place shortly before 2:30 this morning, and arrested William Webb, one of Robinson's friends, on complaint that he had struck the manager.

After Webb was bailed out, the men returned to the restaurant, Patrolman Simpson said.

"We were called again when the cook, Arthur Messer, reported that Robinson had pulled a pistol from his pocket," Simpson continued. "He said he found a loaded pistol in Robinson's coat pocket."

"Messer told us Robinson threatened him after he learned that he told us he had a pistol," Simpson said.

Little Hope for Laos Agreement

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kennedy administration officials were reported today to have virtually given up hope of getting Soviet agreement to revival of a three-power international control commission for Laos.

That is the basis for the Western formula for ending the war in Laos and uniting the Southeast Asian country under a policy of neutrality.

President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk looked to Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, just home from Moscow, for the latest word on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's attitude toward this and other issues in conflict between the Soviet Union and the Western powers.

Thompson scheduled an afternoon appointment with Rusk.

In advance of that session, he was meeting with other officials in the State Department.

Thompson arrived Wednesday night for two weeks of top-level consultation on U.S.-Soviet relations in an effort to find ways of easing tension and improving contacts between Washington and Moscow. But the focus of interest as he settled down for a long round of conferences was more on U.S.-Soviet conflict than on the hope of improvement.

U.S. officials are privately disappointed that Khrushchev's recent assurances to Kennedy of a desire for better relations have not, in their view, resulted in easing such crises as those in Laos and the Congo.

Kennedy met with Rusk and other foreign policy and military advisers for more than two hours Wednesday on the Laos dispute.

It was understood they decided there was little prospect for Soviet agreement to the plan to revive the control commission composed of India, Canada and Poland. They therefore decided it was urgent to look into other approaches.

One alternative to be explored with other friendly governments in the next few days, it is understood, is creation of a committee of strictly neutral powers with neither Communist nor Allied governments represented. Such a move probably would command considerable support in world public opinion whatever Moscow might think about it.

Lawford Robbery Down to $2,000

NEW YORK (AP)—The Peter Lawford hotel suite robbery has been downgraded from $31,000 to $2,000.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said Wednesday the loot amounted to "about $2,000 tops."

"What was taken was $1,000 or $1,100 in cash, a wrist watch purchased several years ago for $800, a charm bracelet and several credit cards, Hogan said.

Hogan also said the watch and cards were recovered "from behind a radiator in a West Side hotel lobby." He did not name the hotel.

Extra Special Tuna Meal

Eating in a Chinese restaurant brought to mind how very good it is on occasion to have a main course made with a non-thickened sauce. This Tuna Rice Skillet dish is the answer, for it is easy, quick and oh so good. Serve with it a medley of buttered canned vegetables such as carrots, lima beans and tomatoes. Add a crisp green salad, hot rolls, and chocolate sundae for dessert.

Tuna Rice Skillet
 1 cup raw regular rice
 2 cans (6½ to 7 oz. each) tuna
 ¼ cup shortening
 2 cups canned clam juice
 ¼ teaspoon salt
 ½ cup chopped ripe olives

Cook rice in hot shortening in a heavy skillet until golden brown, stirring constantly. Add clam juice and salt; mix. Cover and bring to boiling; reduce heat and cook gently until rice is tender, about 25 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add tuna broken into chunks and olives; mix gently. Cover and continue cooking 10 minutes. Garnish with whole ripe olives, if desired. Pour to six servings.

Church Contests Member's Will

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — The Episcopal church has filed a suit here contesting a will by one of its longtime parishioners who bequeathed $260,000 to a catholic nursing home.

The petition filed Tuesday asserts that Mrs. Sylvia Ann Morgan, an Episcopalian for most of her active 93 years, "was not of sound mind" when she made out a new will after her conversion to catholicism and shortly before her death last Dec. 30.

She didn't leave the Episcopal church a dime, the petition said.

"$20,000 a year from it," she said. "But by the time I pay expenses and Johnny leaves his job for three months, there isn't much profit."

Greta is the 1948 100-meter Olympic champion who came to America from her native Denmark in 1953. She tried teaching swimming, but found it boring. In 1956, she entered a swim at Atlantic City, won $4,000 and found a new career. She won the English Channel race in 1957 and 1958, another record.

Ham, Turkey, Lamb on the Markets

FOOD REVIEW
 By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's ham, lamb and turkey, ma'am, at your supermarket and neighborhood grocery this week-end.

Specials on ham are not especially cheap. Prices are 4 cents a pound higher than a year ago at one New York metropolitan area chain, but they're less than recent levels. Meat department experts at the chains like to have an occasional special for every variety just to keep the customers interested.

Lamb and turkey are generally less expensive. The former is down 2 to 6 cents a pound this week in some places, up 4 cents in others. Prices are unchanged to slightly lower than a year ago in the New York area, while turkey are 6 to 10 cents a pound cheaper than in the same week of 1960.

Pork chops and frying chickens are somewhat cheaper in some areas this week, but butter and veal chops are higher. Eggs are off 1 to 2 cents a dozen.

Lettuce remains an outstanding buy among vegetables. Other best buys are beets, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, endive, escarole, green onions, peppers, eastern potatoes, radishes, rhubarb, spinach, tomatoes, turnips and rutabagas.

Good buys include parsley, celery, assorted greens, eggplant, onions, corn, peas, sweet potatoes, artichokes, western and Florida potatoes, brussels sprouts, mushrooms and green squash.

Outstanding buys among fruits are oranges, lemons, grapefruit, tangerines, chestnuts and apples.

Good buys are avocados, grapes, bananas, lemons, small western pears and pineapples.

Paying $1.00 Debt Not So Simple

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Paying off an 88-year-old $1 debt isn't going to be as simple as it sounded at first.

The problem, City Finance Director E. Jack Murphy said today, is figuring interest on the certificate of indebtedness, sent for payment by the Central National Bank of Cleveland, Ohio.

Simple interest at the eight percent per year provided on the 1873 note would come to $7.04 and that wouldn't be much of a problem. But, Murphy said, compound interest would run the total to $809.10.

City Manager Anell M. Douthit said he would take the debt up with the City Manager Board. He said he could pay $1 without the board's consent.

The bank sent the note to the city Tuesday, acting as administrator of the estate of the holder million since Jan. 1.

Mint officials say they expect no serious shortage nationally.

of the note. There was no explanation why it hadn't been collected earlier.

Douthit said the certificate apparently was one issued during a financial panic in the 1800s. The certificate itself will be turned over to the Little Rock Museum of Natural History, he said.

Sales, Use, Tax Measure Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The House Revenue and Taxation Committee today recommended passage of two bills designed to equalize exemptions under the state's sales and use taxes.

In a related action, it called a public hearing for next Tuesday on two Senate bills dealing with the same taxes.

The committee action on the House bills came after some members objection to a recommendation that all bills dealing with sales and use tax be passed and sent to Gov. Orval E. Faubus, with the governor to sign the ones he thought would be most beneficial to the state.

The House bills, by Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsen and Benton County Rep. Hardy Croxton, would equalize exemptions under the two taxes primarily by removing some of the exemptions now allowed to the use tax.

The Senate measures, sponsored by Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock and already passed by the upper chamber, would achieve equalization primarily by extending to the sales tax most of the exemptions now permitted to the use tax.

Use tax is similar to sales tax, but is paid on purchases made out of the state.

Pulaski County Rep. Gayle Windsor asked for the public hearing on the Senate bills.

Greta Plans Catalina Swim Again

By BOB THOMAS
 AP Movie-TV Writer

HONOLULU (AP) — Following the film wakes of Johnny Weissmuller and Esther Williams is a bright-eyed Amazon named Greta Anderson.

Greta is the human propeller who has conquered just about every long-distance swim normally navigated, including a two-way stretch in the Catalina Channel. She is here to defeat the Molokai Channel, 26 miles of tortuous currents. Her first try failed Jan. 28. Next time—watch out.

She is also getting in the movie swim with an hour and a half documentary about the feat. It is being filmed by a crew headed by Jerry Courneya, veteran producer of travel and sports films, including a series with Errol Flynn.

Courneya is enthused about the film's possibilities.

"We'll make the Molokai Channel the heavy," he says. "We'll show all the preparations for the swim—Greta's fear of sharks and all that. We'll build up suspense and the swim will be the climax of the picture."

How does Greta feel about all this? She's an easy-going (on land) Dane who seems willing to try anything.

"I've never done any acting," she admitted. "But that's going to be easy. It's the swimming that's difficult."

Greta is 31, 5 feet 7½ and a muscular 140 pounds, though she dropped 17 on the Molokai try. When she isn't in the water, she lives in Long Beach, Calif., with her husband, swim coach John Sonnichsen. They run a swim school and she lectures with a film of her achievements.

Long-distance swimming is not a big-money enterprise, she admitted.

Crispy Chicken Cumberland

During the cool weather, when outdoor exercise slows down, you're likely to put on unwelcome pounds. Low-calorie chicken is a pleasant way to combat the calorie count.

Take Crispy Chicken Cumberland, for instance. It looks like fried chicken and tastes like fried chicken, but it has added virtues. It bakes in the oven, needs no watching or turning, and requires no extra fat in the cooking. Crispy Chicken Cumberland can be prepared in advance for company, popped into the oven when guests arrive, and forgotten until serving time.

With the chicken goes an elegant sweet-and-tart fruit sauce, which may be omitted if you're watching your weight.

Chicken With Cumberland Sauce
 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving pieces
 1 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
 1 teaspoon Ac'cent
 1 teaspoon salt
 ½ teaspoon pepper
 Heavy duty aluminum foil
 ½ cup evaporated milk

Combine corn flake crumbs with Ac'cent, salt and pepper in pie plate or shallow dish. Line shallow baking pan with aluminum foil. Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk then roll immediately in seasoned corn flake crumbs. Place chicken pieces, skin side up, in foil-lined pan; do not crowd. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) about one hour, or until tender. No need to cover or turn chicken while cooking. Yield: 4 servings.

Cumberland Sauce
 1 cup currant jelly
 1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated orange juice, undiluted
 1 teaspoon dry mustard
 ½ teaspoon ginger

Combine all ingredients in saucepan; stir and heat until mixture is smooth. Yield: 1½ cups.

Civil Suits May Follow Sentences

By LEE LINDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The government breakup of the giant conspiracy in the $2-billion-a-year heavy electrical equipment industry, halting illegal price fixing and bid rigging, may be followed by many civil suits.

Customers may seek to recover thousands of dollars, perhaps millions in alleged overpayments. Such action could be in the courts for years. The suing customer must prove he was damaged by price-fixing or bid-rigging. This is not easy, attorneys said.

Industry sources, meantime, said equipment prices remain virtually unchanged.

The intensive federal probe that began 18 months ago ended Tuesday as U. S. Dist. Judge J. Cullen Gandy finished sentencing 29 companies and 44 of their top executives.

It was a two-day job in Gandy's courtroom where he imposed total fines of $1,924,500 and 30-day jail terms for seven men.

A 45th individual, too ill to appear, will be sentenced later.

There were 20 indictments in all, brought in by four separate grand juries. The 14 remaining were disposed of Tuesday, after Monday's five-hour session.

All the indictments accused the defendants of fixing prices, maintaining them at high and artificial levels and restraining, suppressing and eliminating competition.

The defendants either pleaded guilty or no defense. The judge said both were an equal admission of the charges.

Company fines, totalling $1,787,000, must be paid within 10 days. Individuals, assessed $137,500 must pay within 20 days.

The seven jailed will serve their prison terms starting next Monday, in the Montgomery County Prison at nearby Norristown, Pa.

The industry's two biggest firms — General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Electric Corp. — bore the brunt of the penalties. Government lawyers said they do over 60 per cent of the total business. GE was fined $437,500. Westinghouse $382,000. Sixteen GE executives, three of them ordered jailed, were fined $55,000, while 14 Westinghouse officials must pay $27,000, two of them to go to jail.

The industry supplies most of the equipment for transmission, generation and distribution of electric power to operate television sets and toasters in virtually every American home.

The transformers, oil circuit breakers, watt hour meters, insulators and other items help operate submarines, battleships, atomic energy plants and dams.

The U. S. economy depends on this equipment, Judge Gandy, noting this, called the violations "shocking."

William L. Maher, chief of the antitrust division in eastern Pennsylvania who headed the vast probe, said he couldn't say what effect the end of the price-fixing will have upon smaller segments of the industry.

"We found a violation of the law," he said, "and we prosecuted."

The convicted companies did over $8 billion gross sales during the 1955-59 indictment periods.

ORANGE-PRUNE COFFEE RING

Is anything more fun to eat than a spunkin' fresh coffee cake cut in generous wedges and accompanied by cups of steaming, fragrant coffee? It's a refreshment to put cheer into any soul... and especially if the coffee cake is this Orange-Prune Coffee Ring.

It is fruity—little pieces of tart-sweet prunes all through it take care of that. It has a nut-like flavor—the whole bran cereal is responsible for that. Then there's the pungency of orange juice and rind, and the sweetness of a sugar icing. So make it and enjoy it—for morning coffee breaks, for afternoon pick-ups, for late evening snacks. Here are the directions:

| 3/4 cup orange juice | 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder |
| 1 egg | 1/4 teaspoon baking soda |
| 1/4 cup soft shortening | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 1 1/2 teaspoons grated orange rind | 1/4 cup sugar |
| 1 cup finely cut cooked prunes | |

Combine bran cereal and orange juice; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Add egg, shortening and orange rind; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and sugar. Add to first mixture together with prunes, stirring only until combined. Fill greased 8 1/2-inch ring mold about 3/4 full. Bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 25 minutes. Remove from ring mold; let cool.

Icing: 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar | 1-2 tablespoons hot milk or light cream

For icing, combine sugar and milk, stirring until of spreading consistency. Spread at once over coffee cake. If desired, sprinkle icing with grated orange rind and decorate with walnut halves. Makes 8-10 servings.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE

By Henry Farrell

Copyright © 1960 by Henry Farrell Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

THE STORY: Although Edwin Flagg's mother sacrificed a great deal to give him a musical education, he has never done a day's work in his life. In desperation and boredom, he answers a newspaper ad for an accompanist. He finds that the ad was placed by an old woman, Flagg doesn't know that this woman is the former child star Baby Jane Hudson.

Chapter XVI

Abandoning her teacup to the table, the old girl pulled her feet up under her and, with grotesque kittenishness, leaned back.

"Well," she said slowly, "I suppose I ought to tell you I've been retired—for a time. I had to give up my career for a while because of—illness in the family."

"But now you're free again—to return to your profession?"

"Oh, yes—yes, indeed."

He looked at the old girl with veiled speculation: she must have some money tucked away somewhere, an inheritance probably if there had been a recent death in the family.

"Can you describe your act?"

"I'm Baby Jane Hudson."

He first thought was that he had surely misunderstood her.

"Baby Jane Hudson?" he said cautiously.

she nodded, looking at him now with doubt and disappointment.

"Uh-huh."

"Well," he said. He hesitated, then went quickly on. "Well, I just don't believe it."

With this bogus show of astonishment he saved the day. Her face came instantly alight, and she leaned forward, clasping her hands about her knees in a gesture of girlish enthusiasm.

"I'm going to revive my old act. Just the way I used to do it—exactly." Her gaze reached beyond him to some bright scene visible only to herself.

Her smile seemed to turn inward, and she ran a hand aimlessly over her skirt. "Of course I'll have to get rid of a little weight. But I'm going on a diet anyway. Tomorrow, I am, first thing. I was thinking about the costumes. Don't you think I ought to have all my old ones copied?"

Edwin turned his attention evasively to his tea cup. "Well—of course I don't quite remember—"

"Oh, of course not. But I do want your opinion, Mr. Flagg. Before you came I put out all the pictures in the rehearsal room so you can look at them and tell me what you think." She turned to him, her smile suddenly brilliant.

"Oh, I wish Daddy could be here right now! You can't ever lose your talent, he used to tell me. Once you're born with talent, you have it all your life long. You can lose money, youth and looks, but—"

In the rehearsal room, she led him to the piano and showed him a large leatherbound scrapbook.

"While you're looking, I'll just go clear away the tea things." She turned and started toward the door.

"Why don't I come and help?" Edwin offered, half in malice.

"Oh, no, I can do it." She turned back in the doorway.

"Your first name is Edwin?"

Edwin nodded.

"Edwin," she murmured and then she swung about and left the room, closing the door very carefully. Edwin gave his attention to the piano. A good make, expensive.

He stared at the first of the photographs. From a faded print brown with age, a little girl of seven or eight with dark curls and huge wide-set eyes grinned up at him with a guile that might have done credit to a coquette of 20.

The child appeared again and again, in an endless parade of costumes and poses, looking, it seemed to him, just a bit more cloyingly cute in each succeed-

East, South Hit by More Heavy Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More snow piled atop white-carpeted areas in central eastern and southern sections of the nation today but the storms didn't appear to pack the punch of last week's wintry blockbusters.

One storm dumped nearly a foot of snow in northwest Arkansas, the season's heaviest fall, as it spread into sections of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas and Oklahoma. But it tapered off during the night and only light snow fell this morning in parts of Kansas and northeast Oklahoma.

More than eight inches of snow fell in Roanoke, in southwest Virginia, in a second storm that hit southern and eastern areas with snow, sleet and freezing rain.

A disturbance off the Carolina coast and over Kentucky teamed to produce wet weather from the Ohio Valley southward into the northern Gulf states and eastward to the middle and south Atlantic states.

The storms struck as many sections continued to dig out from winter's heaviest snowfalls of last week.

Snow continued during the morning over most of the Ohio Valley eastward into the Virginias. Rain dampened areas to the south. Freezing rain, snow or sleet pelted a narrow belt between the snow and rain zones.

Up to four inches of fresh snow was indicated in Maryland and the east central Appalachians and one to three inches in the Ohio Valley.

Some snow was forecast for New York City as the gigantic task of getting the city back to normal operations moved forward in the wake of last week's snowfall of more than 17 inches. The snow was expected to change to rain or rain mixed with snow later today.

In the Midwest storm belt, seven inches of snow was reported in West Plains, Mo., north of the Arkansas border while snow flurries extended into Little Rock.

St. Louis was hit with a three-inch fall, adding to the seven inches already on the ground. Many schools in St. Louis and other parts of southern Missouri and northern Arkansas closed, as did some industries. At least two storm-related deaths were reported in Missouri.

No severe cold was reported in the storm areas.

Bill to Regulate Sale of Pistols

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bill to regulate the sale of pistols, backed by the Arkansas Sheriffs Association, will be introduced in the Arkansas Legislature.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Thorp Thomas said Tuesday he is preparing the measure, which would cover only revolvers and automatic pistols. He said he also is drafting a proposed law to make it a felony for an ex-convict to carry a pistol.

Thomas said the bill would propose a $500 a year tax on manufacturers and importers selling pistols in Arkansas, with a $200 a year tax on retailers and a $300 a year tax on pawnshops selling guns. It also would require sellers to obtain proof of identity from purchasers of pistols and to register this information with county sheriffs for use by law officers.

Desha Sheriff Robert S. Moore, president of the National Sheriffs Association and secretary of the Arkansas group, said the sheriffs are concerned about the easy purchase of pistols. Thomas said a number of sheriffs, especially in East Arkansas, have been concerned about rising sales of pistols, especially to migrant Mexican workers.

Then this was her act, this—junk. He looked down at the piano bench. Doubtless it was crammed to brim with more of the same. He lifted the lid.

He was not disappointed. He started to sort through them, then stopped, looking down at a photograph—if, indeed, that was what it was—that he had glimpsed between two of the packets of music.

He stared in bewilderment at the pale face that peered up fragmentarily from between the vicious slashes of red crayon. It was the picture of a woman, that was evident, and from what he could tell she had been blonde and pretty. But whoever had marked it had done so, evidently, in a mood of savage hatred. The blue point of the crayon had gouged deeply into the photograph, leaving heavy crimson gashes across the mouth and nose. Over the entire area of the face were lighter, quickly darting marks, as if the vandal, not content with having mutilated it, had wanted to obliterate it entirely.

"Edwin?"

He turned to find her coming unsteadily toward him. He lifted his brows in silent enquiry.

"You saw the pictures?" she asked.

"Yes," he heard himself saying. "They're wonderful."

Herb Corn Bread Appetizers

What could be more pleasant before dinner than a few relaxing minutes in the living room—with time to talk and time to nibble and enjoy flavorful appetizers, such as these piping hot Herb Corn Bread Squares.

You can hardly find an easier appetizer, yet one that says so well "I made it specially for this occasion."

Serve the corn bread squares fresh-from-the-oven. Accompany them with chilled vegetable juice and plenty of whipped butter for guests to spread on the hot bread as they help themselves.

Nutmeg is the lone spice in Herb Corn Bread. It's combined with a trio of herbs—oregano, thyme and basil. All together, they give this corn bread its incomparable flavor.

Whether you're baking corn bread for appetizers or as a main course accompaniment, you'll find it's fast work with enriched self-rising corn meal. This convenient, reliable product already contains baking powder and salt, as well as essential vitamins and minerals.

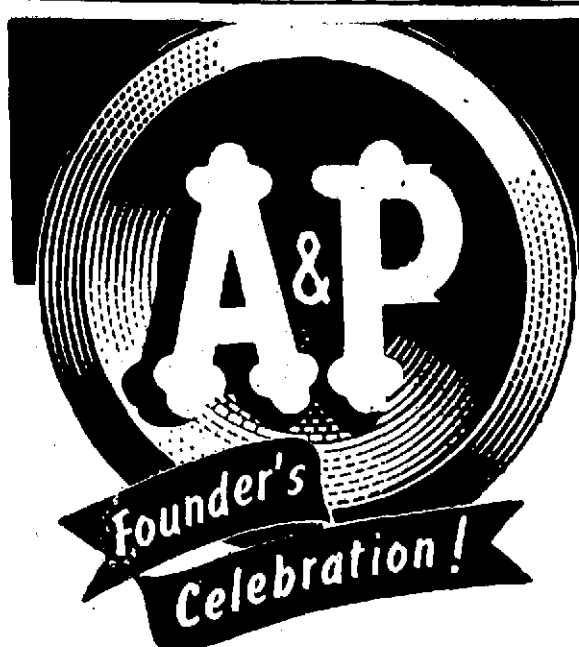

That's why corn bread made with enriched self-rising corn meal gives your family and guests eating pleasure and an important measure of good nutrition, too.

HERB CORN BREAD

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 2 cups enriched self-rising corn meal | 1/4 teaspoon oregano |
| 1/2 cup sifted enriched self-rising flour | 1/4 teaspoon thyme |
| 2 tablespoons sugar | 1/4 teaspoon basil |
| 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg | 1 egg, beaten |
| | 1/2 cup melted shortening or oil |
| | 1 1/4 cups milk |

Combine corn meal, flour, sugar, nutmeg and herbs. Combine egg, shortening or oil and milk. Add to corn meal mixture and mix well. Turn into well-greased 9x13-inch pan. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Makes 3 dozen 1x3-inch pieces.

Highway Bids Taken on Small Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission today opened bids, totaling about $800,000 on four small road and bridge projects. A $343,000 bid also was received on construction of a new Little Rock district headquarters.

The largest highway project in the letting was for construction of a bridge and approaches over Caddo River on Highway 70 at Glenwood, W. R. Fairchild, Farmersville, La., had the apparent low bidder on this project with an alternate proposal was Forsgren Bros., Fort Smith, with $266,236.

Projects by counties and apparent low bidders:

Pike County — Bridge and approaches over Caddo River on Highway 70 at Glenwood, W. R. Fairchild, Farmersville, La., $301,323.20 (on alternate No. 2, Forsgren Bros., Fort Smith, $266,236.24).

Sevier County — Bridges and approaches over Cossatot River on Highway 24, Horatio Lockesburg Road, near Lockesburg, W. R. Fairchild, Farmersville, La., $269,801.20.

Prairie County — Approximately 3.3 miles of grading, minor drainage structures and asphalt surfacing on Highway 33, Biscoe-Des Arc road, near Reelfoot, Apt. Construction Co., North Little Rock, $120,712.48.

Pointsett County — Bridges and approaches over drainage ditch, Brushy Creek and LiAnguille River Relief on Highway 14, Waldenburg - Harrisburg Road, near Waldenburg, J. Lester Booker Co., Little Rock, $66,812.60.

Pulaski County — Construction of new District 6 headquarters building and other facilities in Little Rock, N. P. Alessi Co., Little Rock, $343,103.

North Little Rock was known first as De Canition, after an army officer that laid out the town in 1846.

Market Owner Fined for Making Book

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Milton M. Hazlewood, owner of a curb market here, was found guilty of betting laws violations on two counts in U.S. District Court Tuesday and is subject to a minimum fine of $1,000 on each count.

Hazlewood was arrested last fall by Internal Revenue Service Agents as part of a nationwide crackdown on illegal betting.

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime kept up its bitter anti-clerical campaign Tuesday night with a charge by Defense Minister Raul Castro that Roman Catholic priests are active in bomb plots against the government.

The prime minister's younger brother told a crowd of several thousand cheering students one priest was caught planting a bomb at a munitions depot and another was arrested trying to join invaders from the Dominican Republic.

It was one of the strongest attacks on the clergy since the Castros came to power, and once more the target was Spanish-born priests, the majority of the clergy in Cuba. The Castro regime claims they act on the orders of Spanish dictator Francisco Franco.

Despite his charges, Raul left the impression the Communist-dominated regime plans no immediate action against the church. He called for patience in the face of "anti-national" activities by the priests and said the regime always will insure religious freedom.

Shortly after the rally, a bomb explosion was heard in suburban Miramar. It was the 10th in the last three nights. Raul's appearance in Havana was a surprise in view of reports

Women's Valentine Monopoly Challenged

"If the ancient Roman 'Feast of Lupercalia' hadn't undergone a radical change through the years, we'd now be readying a February 14th celebration that the young men of this nation might 'welcome'—according to Bert Bacharach, columnist, author and authority on abstract information.

"On Lupercalia," according to Bacharach, a student of Roman civilization, "every unmarried woman put her name in a box and, at the height of the celebration, the young Roman bucks drew the girls' names. The one selected by each man became his sweetheart for the next year and gifts and tender messages were exchanged."

"The messages—our Valentine cards—are all that's left of Lupercalia for the man," sadly noted Bacharach. "Valentine's Day has become a one-sided occasion with the girls cleaning up on heart-shaped boxes of candy, flowers and—more often than not—much costlier items. The men have all but been forgotten!"

Today's Valentine's observation began when the Romans became Christianized, Lupercalia was "a little too wild for them," so when the two St. Valentines were martyred on February 14th, the February 15th celebration of Lupercalia was moved up a day, and has come down to us in that form," explained Mr. Bacharach.

"Somewhere along the line," noted Mr. Bacharach darkly, "the women took Valentine's Day over. It would be nice to get this lovely holiday back on the track with a return gift of something masculine and fashionable like a box of cigars, a necktie or even a monogrammed shoehorn."

Door, Phone Proves Rough to Husband

By HAL BOYLE

YOURVILLE, U.S.A. (AP)—One morning recently Wilbur Peck, average American husband, woke up with a cold. His wife, Trellis Mae, told him:

"I'm not going to let you go to the office. You just stay home in bed and rest."

"I have a lot of shopping to do in town, so you'll have the place to yourself all day. It'll be nice and quiet."

After fixing his breakfast, Trellis Mae left. Taking his morning paper, Wilbur sank back into bed. "Ah-h-h," he sighed gratefully. Then the doorbell sounded. Wilbur grunted, got up, wrapped his dressing robe around him and padded to the door.

"You got any knives you want sharpened?" said a man.

"No," said Wilbur. Back he padded to bed.

Five minutes later the doorbell sounded again. It was the laundry man. Back went Wilbur to bed. The doorbell sounded. It was the man from the dry cleaners. Wilbur crawled back to bed. Before he could pull the covers over him, the phone rang.

"The cookies you ordered from the Girl Scouts have arrived," said a small voice. "Shall we bring them over today?"

"No," said Wilbur. "Give them to the Brownies, give them to the elves. I don't care what you do with them."

Back he stomped to bed. The phone rang. It was a lady with a message for Trellis Mae. It was a long message. It took Wilbur half an hour to write it down.

The long trip from the bedroom to the front door was wearing him out. He took his covers and moved to the living room sofa.

The doorbell sounded. It was a woman in the apartment building collecting for a charity. The phone rang. It was a little boy asking, "Can I talk to Mabel?"

"Wrong number," growled Wilbur. The little boy with the wrong number called back four more times in search of Mabel.

The doorbell sounded. It was another lady collecting for another charity. Before Wilbur could reply to her the phone rang.

"Have you had your insurance policies checked lately?" demanded a deep male voice.

So the day went. If it wasn't the doorbell sounding, it was the phone ringing—or both ringing at once.

When Trellis Mae entered at nightfall, she found Wilbur, hollowed, sitting in a chair midway between the door and the telephone, his glance shifting from one to the other like a trapped animal.

He looked so wild she called the doctor who, after checking Wilbur, told him:

"You're suffering from acute physical exhaustion from overwork. Better stay home a few days and take it easy."

"Stay home!" screamed Wilbur.

The government has gathered the biggest concentration of armed forces in the nation's history to attack rebel strongholds in southern Cuba's mountains.

An estimated 60,000 Castro men reportedly have sealed off 1,600 to 4,000 insurgents in the Escambray Mountains of Las Villas Province, 185 miles southeast of Havana. All civilian movement for 50 miles around the mountains has been restricted.

Informed sources said the rebels are the best armed and entrenched opposition the Castros have met since the overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista and that a battle, if it comes, could be one of the bloodiest in Cuban history.

Can't Determine Who Is Ahead

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—It no longer is possible to determine who is ahead in the U.S.-Soviet space race, says a top U.S. scientist.

Dr. Werner von Braun said Tuesday night that U.S. space efforts were "so diversified and complex" that it was impossible to make "such a sweeping statement" as to who was leading.

He said the Soviets had been able to make deeper probes into space and had put up bigger rockets and bigger payloads, but that the United States had made "six times as many firsts."

Highway Says Land Worth Only $3,500

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—Appraisers for the state Highway Department Tuesday testified that land condemned by the department belonging to Marshal Stanley seven miles southwest of here near U.S. Highway 67 is worth only $3,500 and not the $20 million he is seeking.

Stanley has contended that the land comfortably supports him and his family, and that the special qualities of the mineral deposits on the condemned tract warrant the high price.

The trial continued today in Saline Circuit Court with several more witnesses for both sides—including an expert geologist for the state—scheduled to be heard.

Now Okay to Turn Right on Red

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has signed into law a bill allowing drivers to make right turns at red lights after they have stopped for the light.

A similar bill was repealed in 1959 when the state adopted a new traffic code.

Other bills signed by Faubus Tuesday included measures to:

Set mandatory 10-day jail terms for motorists operating vehicles while their license was suspended for drunken driving or for driving under the influence of drugs.

Make the disturbing of graves a felony.

Authorize the state Racing Commission to issue racing franchises for horse and dog tracks after such tracks are approved in a referendum by more than half the qualified voters of the area.

Memphis Player Signs With UA

MEMPHIS (AP)—Wingback Jerry O'Dell, the Memphis prep league's leading pass receiver, signed a football grant in aid with the University of Arkansas Tuesday night.

O'Dell, of Messick High, caught 13 passes good for 321 yards during the past football season. He scored 12 touchdowns and two extra points.

Measure Defeated

BOSTON (AP)—The Massachusetts House, by a 68-47 vote, has killed a bill which would have required newspapers to identify the authors of all editorials and feature stories.

"I could take it easier in a railroad terminal. The first thing in the morning I'm going back to my office, where I know I can get some rest."

Now whenever a husband wonders aloud how wives get so tired in a house full of labor-saving gadgets, Wilbur knows.

The housework is easy. It's running from the doorbell to the telephone that really wears them down.

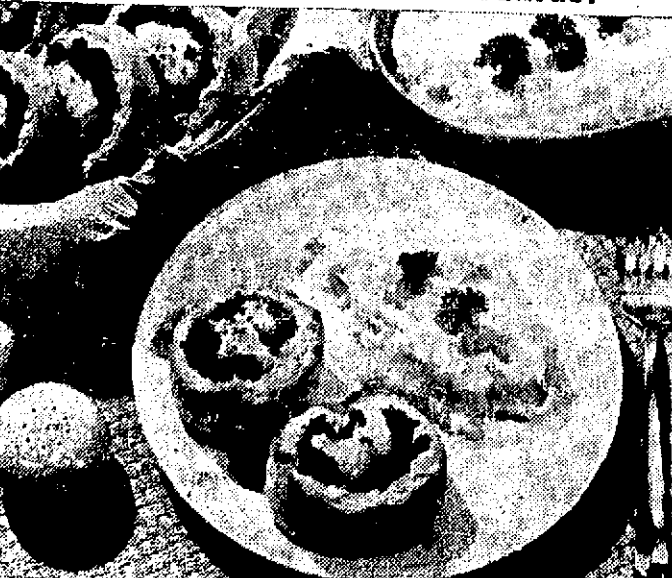

Glamorous Party Dessert

Naturally sweet, fresh California dates and candied cherries fleck the ice cream filling of "Nesselrode Ice Cream Pie." Turn it into a buttery cookie crust and pop it into the freezer for a special make-ahead party dessert.

Measure 1 cup pitted fresh California dates and 1/2 cup whole candied cherries. Set aside 6 each for garnish; chop remaining dates and halve cherries. Add 1/2 cup Sherry wine and let stand while preparing crust. Cream 1/2 cup butter or margarine and 3 tablespoons sifted powdered sugar. Mix in 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Chill 30 minutes. Press into ungreased 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 10 minutes; until gold in brown. Cool. Soften 3 pints vanilla ice cream; mix in wine and 1 fruit. Spoon into crust. Freeze until firm. At serving time, garnish with 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped, and the reserved dates and cherries. Makes 8 or more servings.

Sausage Wheels For Breakfast

Everyone needs that "extra little something" to get going in the morning! You'll tempt the most languid appetite if you prepare simple foods in a new fashion. Sausage Wheels served with pineapple juice, ready-to-eat cereal and scrambled eggs are the makings of a top-notch breakfast.

Because Sausage Wheels are a biscuit-meat combination, they add both appeal and good nutrition to the menu. This attractive and tasty breakfast dish made with enriched self-rising flour offers calcium, food iron and three B-vitamins to benefit your family's health. You make your breakfast biscuit baking easy, too, when you use enriched self-rising flour. Baking powder and salt have already been blended with self-rising flour to save you time and energy.

To make Sausage Wheels for breakfast, first brown the sausage. While the meat is cooking, mix the biscuit dough, then crumbly, golden-brown biscuits. While the biscuits are baking, prepare and set out the other breakfast foods. Here's the time-fast possible.

SAUSAGE WHEELS

1 pound pork sausage meat 1/4 cup shortening or salad oil
2 cups sifted enriched self-rising flour 1/2 to 1 cup milk

Cook sausage in skillet until all red color disappears. Do not brown. Drain off as much fat as possible. Measure flour into mixing bowl. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead gently 30 seconds. Roll out to rectangle about 8 x 12 inches. Scatter cooked sausage meat evenly over dough. Roll up like jelly roll. Cut into 1-inch slices and place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) until lightly browned about 15 to 20 minutes. Makes 12 Sausage Wheels.

2 Big Issues Die in the Legislature

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The two major controversies predicted for the 33rd General Assembly — congressional redistricting and a proposed soft drink tax — have reared their heads and died, but much work remains to be done in the closing weeks of the 1961 session.

Twenty-one legislative days remain in which lawmakers must settle a controversial reorganization of the Teacher Retirement System, decide on whether there will be any tax cuts and find some means of financing the collegiate construction program the soft drink tax was designed to effect.

The first five weeks of the session were marked by harmony, although tempers flared briefly for the congressional redistricting problem was settled in the third week by adoption of the so-called Mays plan, devised by Cleveland County Rep. Raymond Mays.

Mays put Congressmen Oren

Harris and W. F. Norrell together in his new 4th District and set Reps. Dale Alford and Wilbur Mills in the 2nd District. The Legislature had to cut from six to four congressional districts because Arkansas lost two House seats as the result of a population decline.

The soft drink tax bill, which authorized a $52 million bond issue for construction at the University of Arkansas, seven state colleges, the State Hospital and the Children's Colony, created a mighty furor. It finally was withdrawn by its author this week after a Revenue and Taxation Committee recommended against passage following a public hearing. Sponsors said they could get only 31 votes, with 51 needed to pass.

An economy move spearheaded by Mississippi Rep. E. C. Fleeman failed to get off the ground in the House and nothing of the sort was tried in the Senate. Both Houses rushed budget measures through according to recommendations of Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the Legislative Council.

The House appeared determined, however, to give relief in the state income tax field. It passed several tax cut bills and has several others pending, but the Senate killed the first of these measures it got with a firmness that indicated the others won't be warmly received.

Faubus criticized any effort to cut taxes.

The Legislature got the first of two proposals on changes in the Teacher Retirement System this week. It would limit state contribution to the plan to 9.72 per cent of salary. Coming is a Faubus-backed proposal to set the state share at five per cent. Both proposals leave teacher contributions at five per cent and provide for addition of Social Security benefits if teachers want them.

Social Security would cost teachers another three per cent with the local school districts putting up the employer's three per cent share.

The only concrete proposal to replace the soft drink tax bill was introduced by Garland County Rep. Ray S. Smith Jr., whose bill would finance a $52 million bond issue out of current revenues.

Legislators were almost unanimous in the opinion that some means must be found to finance construction, particularly at the State Hospital, where most buildings are oldest, and at the Children's Colony, where expansion is the big need.

Administration legislation was

Won't Ask Tax Cut, Says Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy said today he does not intend to ask Congress at this time for any cut in taxes aimed at spurring the national economy.

The President told his news conference he and his advisers are going to take a new look at the economy in April and decide then whether any additional government action is needed to lift the level of business.

Kennedy left open the question of whether he then might recommend some cuts in taxes. He noted that as a senator he voted during the 1958 recession against tax cuts in March of that year, and for cuts in June. The tax-cutting move lost in Congress.

"I will say that I am not convinced at the present time that Congress would entertain that (tax cut) proposal," Kennedy said, "and I would not make it at the present time because I do think we should have more experience and more perspective on the state of the economy before making a proposal which is quite far-reaching."

Kennedy said a tax cut probably would cost $4 billion to $5 billion in revenue. Such a loss, he said, would limit the nation's ability to go ahead with programs which he feels might be more useful in the long run.

"If you have a tax cut, it may last six months, if Congress should grant it, and you lose $5 billion which is put back into the economy and expended," he said.

"With $5 billion or $3 billion devoted to education or health or international security, you can produce a longer range result. So that this is a matter which must be considered from various perspectives."

Jonesboro Raises School Money

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — A door-to-door collection in the snow Tuesday night boosted to nearly $30,000 the amount of money collected so far in a drive to raise funds for school operation.

Leaders of the drive predicted that the remaining $8,000 of the goal would be raised within a week or so.

About 300 Parent-Teacher Association members collected $9,197 in cash in the solicitation Tuesday night. About $17,600 had been donated previously.

The campaign seeks $38,000 which school officials say is needed to keep schools open for a full year. Failure of a proposed 15-mill tax increase in the Dec. 6 school elections is blamed for the financial crisis. School officials say schools will close about March 1 if the $38,000 is not raised.

encountering little difficulty, Faubus got bills passed early to revote the state's authority to buy bonds of local industrial development corporations and the First Arkansas Development Finance Corp., to require a majority vote of all qualified electors in dog and horse track local option election and to increase welfare benefits to a $65 maximum.

Legislators from smaller counties which had heavy population losses in the past 10 years were successful in freezing turnback funds on 1950 population figures to avoid a loss of money for their counties.

But moves by the cities and counties to obtain a larger share of state highway revenues appeared doomed. The state turned back an effort to increase the cities share and there appeared to be little support for a Senate measure to give counties an additional $1.5 million for farm-to-market roads.

Another thorny problem is equalization of exemptions in the sales and use tax laws. The state Chamber of Commerce is pushing to have the same exemptions placed in the sales tax law as now are in the use tax law, and the Senate has passed bills to effect this. House sentiment, however, appears to be for removing the use tax exemptions. The need for equalization is recognized by all, but a dispute is pending over the method.

Still unsettled is the question of how $17 million in projected surplus revenues will be spent. Faubus suggested giving $10 million to the public school fund, $3 million to colleges and distributing the remainder among other state agencies. Majority sentiment appears in favor of his plan, but some funds may be diverted to construction programs.

Also to be acted on are proposed constitutional amendments — of which 30 have been filed. The Legislature can refer only three of these to a vote in the 1962 General Election. Faubus has suggested two — one guaranteeing that no child will be denied his educational right because he refuses to attend an integrated school and the other to set up a quick method for amending the state constitution.

They're something special at SAFEWAY

Bananas

When you talk with our banana experts, you know they really enjoy eating the golden fruit. Perhaps that's one reason these men take such extra special care with the bananas we sell at Safeway. They start by selecting the plumpest, most perfect, fully-mature green bananas that come from Bananaland. Gently, they place this fruit into Safeway's own temperature-controlled ripening rooms. There it stays for the exact time necessary to slowly ripen "from inside out" for peak flavor and for the perfect color which says "Now's the time."

With tender care, the delicate, fully-ripened bananas are packed for their smooth ride to our store near your home. Just the amount the store expects to sell right away is included in each delivery. At Safeway, you'll find bananas are always "something special."
